"DIXIE" IS ALL RIGHT.

The United Old Time Not Forbidden at Lincoln Centennial.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—"Did any author or even consequential person in Chicago forbid as an act of treason the singing of 'Dixie' in the public schools during the Lincoln celebration?"

The foregoing question confronted Richard C. Hall, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce in a telegram received today from Philip Wertheim, president of the New Orleans Progressive Union. The answer in an emphatic negative was telegraphed to Mr. Wertheim after a few hours of strenuous investigation. Here is the message from New Orleans:

"From dispatches stated that singing of 'Dixie' in public schools on Lincoln Day has been forbidden as an act of treason. If Chicago wishes to make any program in the South, take it as a timely, friendly bit of advice, have that order rescinded and get rid of the head of the school system that issued such orders."

Mr. Hall in a somewhat lengthy answer, stated that "Dixie" remained on the musical programme; that there had been no order removing it, and:

"President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton, a Southerner, is to be the principal speaker of the celebration and other prominent Southerners will participate in several of the meetings. The idea has been foremost from the beginning to show national appreciation of Lincoln and to promote friendly national feeling."

TEXAN WILL VOTE

On Constitutional Amendment for State Prohibition.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 7.—With all of the votes represented the House of the Texas Legislature today decided adversely the proposition to submit to a vote of the people a constitutional amendment providing for state-wide prohibition.

The vote stood 85 for and 45 against prohibition, those favoring the measure falling short of the necessary two-thirds by four votes. In order to secure a reconsideration a leader of the prohibition faction voted against the bill and entered a motion to this effect, which is subject to call. No action was taken in the Senate.

While the measure may again be considered during the present session of the Legislature, such is not believed probable, it being generally agreed that both factions could co-operate in perfecting the laws governing local option districts as they now exist.

TWELVE KILLED.

Victims of Friday's Storm in the South Mostly Negroes.

Atlanta, Feb. 6.—A dozen deaths, mostly those of negroes, were the toll taken last night in Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia in the first serious wind storm of 1909.

News reached here today that at Roberts, Ga., last night a negro cabin was blown down and two negro children killed to death.

In the neighborhood of Moultrie, Ga., where dangerous forest fires raged last night, the flames moderated early today during the heavy rainfalls. Fires were burning still in many places tonight, but with the weather calm there was every assurance that they would be extinguished without further serious damage.

Farmers' Union to Push Uses of Cotton.

Atlanta, Feb. 8.—President Charles S. Barrett of the National Farmers' Union has issued an address to that organization in which he urges every local union to take up and push at its next meeting the matter of securing the use of cotton bagging as a covering for all commercial packages where its use is practical.

He asks the members to specify cotton wrappings on the packages which they purchase which will lead the merchant to demand them of the manufacturer. He also urges the locals to take vigorous hold of the matter of using cotton bagging for wrapping bales of cotton.

In furtherance of this movement he has appointed a committee consisting of J. Z. Green of North Carolina, D. J. Neill of Texas and M. F. Dickerson of Arkansas. It will be the duty of this committee to agitate and push the matter of extending the uses of cotton in all practical directions.

He Had Thought of It.

A minister who had a somewhat parsimonious congregation once induced Rev. Sam Jones to come and preach for him.

Just before the sermon was to begin the usual collection was taken up and found to consist mostly of nickles and pennies, together with a sprinkling of buttons. Rev. Sam glanced contemptuously at the baskets as they were placed on the edge of the platform near his chair, and then, turning to the minister in charge, he asked:

"Is that a fair sample of the collection you get in this church?"

"Yes," was the reply. "I should say that is about the average."

"My people are not very liberal givers."

"I see they are not," remarked Sam, dryly. "But do you know what I would do if I were a pastor over a congregation of this kind? Why, I'd hunt up the meanest, ugliest, loudest yellow dog I could find and set him on them."

The minister put his open hand up beside his mouth, leaning toward his brother clergyman and responded in a stage whisper: "That is just what I had thought of doing. Sic 'em, Sam!"
